The Daily Courant.

Saturday, April 28. 1722.

Copenhagen, April 21.

'IT is reported, that Major-General Schulenbourg will be sent to the Court of Vienna, to reside there in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary, from this Court, in the Room of M. Reichwein, who is newly recalled; but others say, M. Perkenthien will succeed him. M. Brekantin is also expected from Stockholm, and 'tis said Major General Arnold will be appointed in his stead Envoy Extraordinary from his Danish Majesty, and will at the same Time be allowed to hold his Command in the Foot Guards and the Appointments belonging to it. The King is at present in the Island Falster reviewing the Troops there, and will afterwards review those of Laland. Here are in this Port sixteen Ships of the Line, and four Frigates already fitted out; and the rest of the Men of War, will be fitted out by the end of this Month, ready for sailing. On the 18th Instant the Marquess de Monteleone's Son and the Count de Guldenstein's only Daughter were married at Malmoe in Schonen, by a Lutheran Minister: The Bridegroom would fain have had the Church Ceremony performed by a Popish Priest he has with him, but the Governour of Malmoe would not tolerate it.

Hambourg, April 24. 'It is reported, that Count Kinski, the Imperial Minister, is ordered to protest against the designed Appointment to the Muscovite Succession, in case it happens to the Exclusion of the Czarowitz, born of the Princess of Wolfenbuttle. The late Affair concerning M. Kannengiesser, Resident of Prussia at the Imperial Court, is entirely composed, and he will shortly return thither to resume his Ministerial Office, and the Imperial Resident M. Vossius will resume his at the Court of Berlin. The Affairs of the Protestant Religion in the Empire grow rather worse than better.

Hambourg, April 28. 'The Imperial Minister, the Count de Metsch, resides in the late Baron Gotta's House till the Magistrates of this City cause a new one to be built for the Residence of the Emperour's Ministers. The Magistrates are desirous that the new House might not be built on the same Ground where the old one stood, but at another part of the City; nevertheless, the Count de Metsch insists on the contrary. Yesterday's Letters from Vienna advise, that the Imperial Court continues to solicite the Duke of Mecklenberg not to oppose the Emperour's Decrees any longer, lest the latter should shew his Resentment in a different Manner than he has done hitherto: The Duke is also advised to pay, without further Delay, the Contributions required of him by the Commissioners of the Execution. 'The Imperial Ministers in Sweden and Prussia are very vigilant in order to discover what Steps are taking in those Courts with relation to the Czar; nevertheless, all the late Rumours of a new Alliance between the latter and the King of Prussia are found to be false. The marching of Muscovite Regiments to Courland and other Parts, alarm Poland and the City of Dantzick, in which City the King of Poland designs to appoint a stronger Garrison than usual.

Hague, May 1. 'As soon as Prince Kurakin had received the States Resolution to acknowledge the Czar Emperour of all Russia, he immediately sent away an Express to his Court with an Account of this Resolution. Prince Kurakin has received Advice of his Son's being appointed Envoy Extraordinary, by the Czar, to the Court of France, in the Room of Prince, Dolborucky, who is recalled from thence. The Placard for continuing the Hundredth-Penny Tax has been published in the Cities of this Province. The Prince of Sultzbach set out To-Day from hence for Amsterdam, in order to meet the Princess his Spouse who is expected to arrive there.

Falmouth, April 23. Yesterday came in the Success of Carmarthen from Swansey for London.

Plymouth, April 24. Yesterday came in His Majesty's Ships Panther and Solebay.

Portsmouth, April 24. This Day came in the Seaflower from Oporto for London.

Liverpool, April 24. Arrived the Diligence from Rotterdam. Sailed the True Love for Sweden; Virginia Merchant for Rotterdam; and Alice and Lydia for Virginia. Remain the Alice, Greyhound, and Barbadoes Merchant.

Deal, April 25. Outward bound, the Betty for Antegoa; and the Mary for Cadiz. Arrived the Robert from the West Indies.

Deal, April 26. All the outward bound are sailed except the Betty for Antegoa.
